

Founded in Thomas Township sixty-five (65) years ago, the Wolgast Corporation has executive offices in the Saginaw Business District; however, the Wolgast Restoration division is located on Graham Road. This is the newest division of the Wolgast operation.

What started as a local masonry contractor, G.H. Wolgast grew and expanded its focus to that of general contractor where they became part in the construction of the Texan Restaurant chain as well as completing the construction of over 275 new McDonalds Restaurants. In 2000, the company began transitioning ownership from a family business to employee ownership. This process was complete in 2006. Today Wolgast has offices in Saginaw, Gaylord, Grand Rapids and Gladstone.

The following services are provided; general construction, design/build, construction management, leaseback, restoration, new build and remodeling.

Some of their specialties include; medical/dental office design and construction, school construction management, restaurant construction, as well as manufacturing design and construction.

Employing 120, Wolgast is open Monday through Friday from 8:00 am-5:00 pm.
